BERLIN, Aug. 7.—Miss Katherine Eddy of Chicago, sister of Spencer F. Eddy, First Secretary of the American Embassy here, and Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana were married here to-day.

The civil rite, according to the German requirements, took place in the Registrar's Office at noon. The religious ceremony, which was held half an hour later at the American Embassy, technically within American jurisdiction, was performed by the Rev. Dr. Thomas C. Hall, Professor of Theology at the Union Theological Seminary, New York, formerly pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago.

E. L. McClain of Greenfield, Ohio, a cousin of Senator Beveridge, and J. C. Schaffer of Chicago, were the witnesses at the civil marriage. Senator Dillingham of Vermont was the best man.

Both ceremonies were of the most simple character, only relatives and a few intimate friends being present. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Augustus N. Eddy, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Spencer F. Eddy, Commander Howard, the United States Naval Attaché, and Mrs. Howard; Col. Wesser, the Military Attaché, and Mrs. Wesser; J. W. Garrett, Second Secretary of the Embassy; Basil Miles, Secretary of the American Embassy at Vienna; Nelson O'Shaughnessy, Third Secretary of the Embassy here; Consul General and Mrs. Thackara, Mrs. and Miss Birch of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schaffer, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McClain, Miss McClain, Mrs. Hall, and Mr. and Miss Munn.

The principal drawing room of the Embassy was converted for the occasion into a chapel, containing a small altar, with a background of plants. Augustus N. Eddy, father of the bride, gave her away. Her dress was of white satin trimmed with lace and having a long train.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the house of Spencer F. Eddy. Ambassador Tower proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom, and Senator Beveridge responded.

Several hundred congratulatory telegrams and cable messages were received, including one from the mother of Mr. Beveridge at Champaign, Ill., and messages from President Roosevelt, James Waitcomb Riley, most of the Senators, many members of the House, and political friends of Mr. Beveridge all over the United States. Large numbers of cable messages continued to arrive after the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Beveridge from Berlin. They were forwarded to Dresden, where the bridal couple will make a short stay.
