D. O. MATTHEWS.

One of the best appointed groceries and meat markets in Greenfield is that conducted by D. O. Matthews on North Washington street near Jefferson.

A most spacious room, the large stock is displayed to great advantage and there is every convenience for keeping meats in splendid condition. Mr. Matthews has for a long time enjoyed an extensive trade and it is constantly growing. He carries in stock the usual line of staple groceries besides a large supply of fancy articles. His Christmas display is very fine consisting of all the delicacies common to the season and fit for the table of the most confirmed epicure.

The quality of the meat handled has given this establishment an enviable reputation. The choicest cuts of beef, mutton, lamb pork and veal are always on hand. Only the highest grade animals are slaughtered for this trade and the prices are no greater than those demanded for inferior meat.

Courteous treatment is accorded everyone at Matthew's—it makes no difference whether a customer purchases $10.00 worth or ten cents worth, the same consideration is extended. It pays to trade with D. O. Matthews.
